

China Southern Airlines

Baggage Rules

(Version 2-2024)

Baggage refers to the personal articles of passengers carried in the course of travel by agreement with China Southern Airlines (hereinafter China Southern), including checked baggage and unchecked baggage. Checked baggage refers to the baggage handed over by passenger to be taken care of and transported by a carrier which will issue baggage claim tags. Unchecked baggage refers to the baggage taken care of by the passenger him or herself.

1 Unchecked Baggage

1.1 General Provisions

China Southern will inspect passenger's baggage before check-in and boarding. China Southern reserves the right to determine at our discretion whether passenger's baggage needs to be transported as carry-on baggage or checked baggage, taking the safety and comfort of you as well as other passengers into account.

For the safety of passengers and crew members, please put your carry-on baggage in the overhead bin or under the seat in front of you. Passengers seated near emergency exits (including those seated near wing exits and in the first row) must put their baggage in the overhead bin to ensure that the baggage will not hinder evacuation in case of emergency.

Items exceeding the carry-on limitations must be transported according to the checked baggage regulations, or Cabin Seat Baggage.

1.2 Limits to Carry-on Baggage

The passengers are required to check all the relevant regulations and information regarding carry-on baggage allowance and items allowed to be carried.

1.2.1 Rules of carry-on baggage for each passenger (excluding except infant not occupying a seat) are shown as below.

Flight Type	Cabin Class	Maximum Number of Pieces	Maximum Weight per Piece	Maximum Dimensions per Piece

Note:

I. Airport Security Check Department may adjust the scope of carry-on items according to the security requirements. Please cooperate with the related department.

II. When there is insufficient storage space in the cabin, some carry-on baggage may need to be checked at the gate and may not be transported by the same flight. Please check in your carry-on baggage at the check-in counter in advance.

III. The foldable strollers (the sum of the length, width, and height of its contour size not exceeding 115 cm) can be carried into the cabin, and foldable strollers exceeding the above size must be transported as checked baggage.

1.3 Cabin Baggage(CBBG)

1.3.1 Cabin Baggage (hereinafter CBBG) refers to items that passengers bring into the cabin for which they have purchased a ticket. These items are generally not suitable for check-in due to their fragile, valuable nature, or because they are too large or heavy to meet the requirements for carry-on luggage storage. The items mainly include valuable or fragile items such as musical instruments, religious statues, precision instruments, and electrical appliances.

1.3.2 Passengers should apply for CBBG service no later than 6 hours before the flight departure by calling our hotline service, through the China Southern Airlines APP, or by visiting a China Southern ticketing office. The service is only confirmed after approval by China Southern.

1.3.3 CBBG should be charged according to the applicable fare for the number of seats actually occupied. The applicable taxes and fees are charged according to the number of passengers actually on the flight. There is no free baggage allowance for CBBG ticket.

1.3.4 CBBG must be arranged in a window seat and must be connected to the passenger's seat. It should not obstruct or hinder the use of any exits or cabin aisles, nor should it cover any passenger information or instruction signs.

1.3.5 The total weight of CBBG carried on each seat must not exceed 75 kilograms, and the maximum volume of CBBG must not exceed 145cm× 50cm × 30cm. Special oversized luggage exceeding the dimensions of 145cm × 50cm × 30cm cannot be brought into the cabin, cannot be included in the free baggage allowance, and must be handled according to the checked luggage regulations.

2 Checked Baggage

2.1 General Provisions

Passengers must check in their luggage with a valid ticket. Checked baggage must be well-packaged, securely locked, firmly tied, able to withstand a certain amount of pressure, and capable of being safely handled and transported under normal operating conditions. It should meet the following conditions:

- (1) Suitcase, handbags and such kind of items should be locked;
- (2) It is not allowed to bundle more than two pieces of baggage into one piece;
- (3) It is not allowed to attach other items to baggage;
- (4) Bamboo baskets, net bags, grass strings and plastic bags are not permitted to be used as packing materials;
- (5) Passenger(s) name, detailed address and telephone number should be written on the baggage.

China Southern may refuse to accept and transport any baggage whose packing does not meet the requirements. Even if the transportation is approved, China Southern shall not be liable for damage or breakage, except as otherwise provided by Chinese laws and international conventions. Please refer to the local requirements if the immigration authorities of each country have other requirements on baggage.

Baggage will be transported on the same flight as the passenger whenever possible. For safety, security or operational reasons, China Southern may arrange other flights for transportation. If the passenger's baggage is transported by a subsequent flight, it will be delivered to the passenger by the carrier, and the passenger may be required by law to be physically present for customs clearance.

2.2 Limitations to Baggage Weight and Size

Flight Type	Route	Maximum Weight per Piece	Maximum Dimensions per Piece
